THANKSGIVING VIGIL WEDNESDAY, NOV 21 @ 7:00 PMLECTOR: MariAnn SaenenMINISTERS OF EUCHARIST: Bob Chisholm*, Pat Chisholm, Norm & Jan Daniels, Char BauerschmidtALTAR SERVERS: Mallori Adams, Emily StraszTHANKSGIVING-LOOK CLOSER

This Thanksgiving season can be the beginning of a new initiative in gratitude. When we wake in the morning we should be grateful to have risen from a warm bed. As we sit at the dinner table, eyeing the overstuffed turkey, take a quiet moment to remember the many in this country (and our own community) who dream of meals this lavish, and then wake to empty stomachs. Look deeper, beneath the surface, instead of seeing the dated wallpaper in the kitchen or the furniture in the dining room that doesn't quite match the new carpeting, be grateful to have a home to call your own. Many don't. Many never will. Remember that sad reality when the howling November winds swirl outside your bedroom window. Think of the many people who brave the elements without four walls to protect them. We are undoubtedly the lucky ones. And don't forget what gives Thanksgiving its true heart: our families. Although many holiday celebrations begin or end with bickering, think twice before engaging in that petty ritual. Look further, past our trivial differences, and count the ways our families enrich our lives. We should keep close to our hearts those who will be spending Thanksgiving alone. The deafening noise of silence is often worse than the dizzying clamor of your family. Look into the faces of those seated around us. Imperfections and all, they are some of our finest blessings. It's important to honor our history with our friends and families. Being thankful is an invaluable act of grace that never loses its luster. Now more than ever it must shine.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

PLANNING COMMITTEE UPDATE-After a summer break, the Sacred Heart planning committee reconvened their monthly meetings in September. The committee is diligently focusing on the charge and purpose set forth before them which is "to follow the goals and dreams from the general parish survey, to plan for those needs and dreams and to implement them, and any other needs, for the future benefit of our parish".

As mentioned in the past newsletters, efforts at this time are to concentrate on the current and future needs of the parish center. There are several ideas and options that are currently being discussed and investigated. Mr. Chip Hendricks, with R.C. Hendricks Contracting, came in May to present his findings after a survey of the parish center. The planning Committee has been busily processing that information and has now invited Mr. Hendricks to review several ideas and options. With his expertise, and with God's grace, the intent is to come to a mutual decision on how to move forward. R.C. Hendricks was chosen because there is NO COST for the many meetings, surveys, and opinions asked of them. A few will be charged only if we proceed with any activity to the parish center. A great deal of time and planning is going into this effort. Be assured this committee is hard at work to do what is right for the current and future needs of our parish. This has been, and will continue to be, a very thorough process. Stay tuned...more to follow. Peace, Fr. Dennis
